NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly by soaking and eradicating the dirt WITH OUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permits.

2d A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867.

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 20 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1869.

FRAUD.

The world will read with amazement the Penitentiary disclosures. Fraud usually exhibits enough respect for virtue to cover itself with some disguise. The persons engaged in this palpable fraud upon the State threw no gauze over their machinations to swindle and cheat.

He is a fool whose charity imputes the conduct of the Committee to their stupidity, or the action of those who sold to them, as legitimate gain.

The sellers are only less guilty than the buyers, because the latter were trustees of the fund that they combined to pocket. Look only at this fact, that this Committee on which was a lawyer, the Senator from Granville, Mr. Lassiter. He accepts a deed for the site of the Penitentiary without a warranty of title. This deed is made by J. M. Heck, President of the Deep River Manufacturing Company. Who and what is the Deep River Manufacturing Company? How did they become owners of the River's dam? It had been erected by the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company. All the property and franchises of this Company, had been purchased for the State in 1859, by Gov. Ellis, for $365,000, and $100,000 more was afterwards expended by the State in perfecting these works. The State had expended $465,000 for these works, just before the war began. Did the State sell out and give to the Deep River Manufacturing Company her interest or any part of her interest? If so, when and by whom, and for what consideration, was this sale or gift made? Gov. Worth, in his message to the General Assembly, in 1867, says, that a Deep River Transportation Company claimed title to these works on Deep River under some legislation during the war, but that he had investigated their claim, and ascertained that it could not be substantiated, and that the State still owned these works, and suggested, if it be deemed expedient, that the State make any further improvement to repair and perfect these works, that the State Penitentiary be located in this region, using the water power, which the State had expended so much to dam, to run the machinery, and thereby tending to develop and make available, the iron and coal on Deep River; or, if this too, should be deemed inexpedient, that the State sell these works at auction. No one, then, was heard to question the title of the State in these works. The General Assembly was prevented from taking any action on these suggestions, by the intervention of military government.

Then, to the amazement of all honest, sane men, the Convention, on the 15th, of March, 1868, gives to the Chatham Railroad Company, in which Company the State owned no stock, all her interest in the works from Northington Dam on the Cape Fear, to the Gulph, on Deep River, both inclusive, with liberty to said Company to repair, use and make available, said portion of said works, and all franchises and privileges appertinent thereto, to the same extent as is possessed by the State. Bear in mind, the ordinance gives the liberty to the Chatham Railroad Company "to use, repair," &c., &c., under color of the public deriving benefit from the making of that portion of the river navigable, with power to transfer and assign the said interest herein conveyed and transfered, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of improving the valley of said river;" but the Company is not required, as a consideration of this right, to make any portion of this river navigable, or to repair any part thereof.—But assuming that the Chatham Railroad Company accepted this gift, which they doubtless did, since they were not required to give or to do anything for it, why did not the Penitentiary Committee take title from the Chatham Railroad Company? Had the Chatham Railroad Company, to avoid responsibility or from other reasons, assigned and transferred to the Deep River Manufacturing Company, such transfer would be illegal.

The power to assign was limited to the purpose of improving the valleys of said river. Neither the Chatham Railroad Company nor their assigns could lawfully transfer it for the purpose of building a Penitentiary. The deed from Gen. Littlefield's friend, carpet bag Pruyn, in consideration of $65,000, paid to him in bonds of the State, to the amount of $100,000, deeds to the State certain undefined lands. The deed, neither upon its face nor by suitable references, would enable a surveyor to locate it. This deed, from a stranger for undefined lands, has no clause of general warranty. The deed, from Heck & Co., has no clause of warranty. The Superintendent of Public Works, buying for himself, would have taken no such deed for land valued at $100, much less at $100,000. Nor is this all. Falsehoods and false statements, abound in the report, as will be seen by comparing the report of the investigating Committee, with the report of the purchasing Committee.

The purchasing Committee says, among the advantages of Lockville, as a location, there is "water power and the privilege of increasing it without restriction or embarrassment."

The examining Committee found the River' dam in a dilapidated condition, broken and washed away, and parties threatening to sue if the dam was ever erected or rebuilt again.

The purchasing Committee say, with this "is offered a large body of land on Deep River, contiguous to Buck Horn Falls, including a water power, together with all its minerals and mines, containing 8,000 acres, at $12,50 cents per acre.

The examining Committee say the 8,000 acres are not on Deep River.

The purchasing Committe say: "The water power, and site of 25 acres, together, and excluding the mineral land, were valued by the Committee at $20 000. The whole was purchased at $100,000."

Not true; the deed from Heck and Company show the consideration to be $1, and the $100,000 was for the 8,000 acres.

"The 8,000 acres," say the Committee, "is fertile and well adapted to the usual crops, with a large quantity of valuble timber and an abundance of granite, iron ore, &c."

This is false. The land is poor, the timber mostly cut off of it, and quite as poor as the land bought by Gen. Littlefield from a member of the Committee. There is no granite on it, though a member of the Committee is said to have sworn that there was.

Again, "The Committee, after thoroughly canvassing the advantages of every place, either by personal inspection or otherwise, are constrained to give preference to this site," &c., &c.

Not one of the Committee has ever been on the 8,000 purchase, save Mr. Harris; at least so they swore before the investigating Committee.

The Report further says: "The parties making the proposition, accepted by the Committee, together with the President of the Chatham Railroad Company, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, agree to run a Railroad to, or within, the walls of the Penitentiary, as your Committee may desire, at an early day."

The investigating Committee say there is no such contract.

The purchasing Committee say, again, that "iron, copper and lumber may, by means of a race or canal, be brought within the walls of the Penitentiary."

No canal can be put within the Penitentiary walls. The climax of falsehood is reached, on the last page of the report of the purchasing Committee when they say: "Your Committee have thought it advisable to purchase a large body of land, well supplied with minerals, and an abundance of timber on Deep River, and including pine forest, water, and a large quarry of granite immediately on the banks of the River, which can be easily quarried, placed on boats and carried within the walls of the Penitentiary. The land itself, apart from its mineral powers, will, in a short time, doubtless, sell, for agricultural purposes alone, for double the price agreed to be paid for it by your Committee."

The investigating Committee say, on none of the 8,000 acre purchase could they learn of any granite. "The timber is almost all worn out turpentine timber; the ton timber has been cut off from it, probably." It is so inaccessable to, and remote from market, that it will not pay to convert it into timber. It would probably not sell for ten cents per acre, and so worthless was it, in the judgment of its former owner, that he was about to parcel it out in small tracts and convey it, as a gift, to freedmen, so as to get rid of paying the very small tax there was on it."

The English language lacks power to express the falsity of the report of the purchasing Committee, when you compare it with the report of the investigating Committee. If we edited the Standard, we would say the report of the purchasing Committee was a lie from beginning to end, but such language would ill become our tongue or our type; we hope never to be provoked into the use of such terms, however justly merited by crime and fraud.

But the shame and blame which attaches to the Legislature is that they take no steps to censure this Committee or the Superintendent of Public Works, for this scandle of the State, while a carpet bag man stands in the lobby looking on for the sale of the North Carolina Railroad, after having declared to a Wall Street Broker that he could buy up a majority of the General Assembly, to further a scheme of his to make money out of North Carolina bonds.

Oh, shame, where is thy blush! Oh, public virtue, whither hast thou fled! Oh, Reconstruction, here are thy fruits! Oh, loyalty, how many thieves cover with thy cloak! Oh, "truth, crushed to earth" when wilt thou rise again!

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—A meeting of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society, will be held in Wilmington, on the 29th instant. Planters and farmers from all parts of the State are invited to attend. The Star says on the Wilmington and Weldon railway arrangements have been made to pass delegates to and from Wilmington free of charge, and we presume the other railroads will be equally liberal.

Mr. Beasley, who has been in our city, for several days, exhibiting specimens of sugar made from sorghum, will we learn, be present at this agricultural meeting.—We bespeak for Mr. Beasley a warm reception, he is a native of this State, and his mission among us at this time, commends itself to our serious consideration.

SMITHFIELD COUNCIL No. 44, F. OF T.—The following members of Smithfield Council No. 44, were elected to hold office during the present term:

John McGuy, President; D. A. Telfair, A. President; Chas. H. Snead, Secretary; John D. Massey, Treasurer; John R. Brooks, Chaplain; Edgar R. Northan, Ex-President; W. W. Nichlos, Conductor; John Ives, A. Conductor; H. J. Hogan, Inside Sentinel; E. S. Parker, Local Vice President.

A prize of two dollars was recently offered to any member of the Connecticut Teachers' Institute who would write and spell correctly the words in the following sentence: "It is an agreeable sight to witness the unparalleled embarrassment of a harassed peddler attempting to gauge the symmetry of a peeled onion which a sibyl has stabbed with a poniard, regardless of the innuendoes of the lilies of cornelian hue." Thirty-eight teachers competed for the prize, but not one was successful.

GONE! FOREVER GONE!!

"WHO WILL SAVE THE REPUBLICAN PARTY?"

The public will bear us witness, that, if we are at fault in any particular, in the conduct of our editorial duties, and our dealings with the Radicals, it has been in our too lenient line of policy toward them, and the mildness of our language in characterizing their deeds of fraud, plunder and theft. We have endeavored to exercise patience and forbearance, and not to appear too ready or too willing to expose their wickedness and corruption, persuaded in our own mind, that the people would eventually find out the leaders, and apply the correction at the ballot box, and bring them to grief.

The lights of corruption are shining, now. Glaring sets of rascality are being daily developed, throughout the broad extent of these United States—not alone in North Carolina—but in the loyal States, North. New Jersey has one of her legislators in the Penitentiary for the crime of bribery, and a distinguished New York Radical is now suffering incarceration, for rascality. The howl is raised of corruption and the Republican party trembles, and staggers under the pressure of public indignation. The Republican party is gone! and among its multitude of counsellors, there is not one to step forward and rescue it. Corrupt in its inception—base in its growth and maturity, they stickled at no means to secure power; and once in power, they pull down national and State credit; bankrupt their people by high taxation, and drain to its last ragged penny, the Treasury of North Carolina.

The New York Evening Post, has become alarmed, and asks the question, "who will save the Republican party." But let the Post be heard briefly:

When a political party has a great predominance, it is pretty sure to draw to itself the rogues, the unscrupulous, and the self seekers in the community. That is the danger of such an ascendancy. A party may become the tool of corrupt men, because its leaders are careless and over-confident of their strength, and because the rogues and self seekers are attracted to it from a desire to use it as their instrument.

When a party becomes corrupt, the people, who endure for a while with that patience which short sighted politicians are so sure to misunderstand, presently leave it and take up the other party, even if they run the risk of fairing but little better by the change.

* * * * * * *

Who, then, will save the Republican party from destruction? Who will regain for it the confidence of the people? Who will unite to impose upon it wise measures, and denounce as contrary to its objects and policy all corruption, all extravagance, all favoritism, all partial legislation? Unless the party has leaders competent and courageous enough to do this, it is likely to be crushed, to fall into general disgrace before the administration of Grant is half over.

Legislature of North Carolina,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

EVENING SESSION.

FRIDAY, Jan. 22, 1868.

House called to order at half past 7 o'clock.

Mr. Downing arose to a question of privilege. He was sorry to trouble the House so often about this matter, but he understood that a Senator had said, to-day, that the Penitentiary Committee had signed their names to palpable untruths. He alluded to Senator Love. After consultation with his (Downing's) friends, as to the proper manner as to how he should notice the charge, he had concluded to pronounce the statement false, from his seat in the House, &c.

He then characterized the report of the Senate Committee of Investigation as unfair, and, in many particulars, absolutely false, &c.

Mr. Sinclair arose to a question of privilege. His attention had just been called to the remark of Mr. Welch, on yesterday morning, in reference to the conduct of his command, during the battle of Newbern. He had explained to Mr. Bowman before Mr. Welch arose, that his (Sinclair's) remarks, in regard to the excursion party, were made in a jocular manner; therefore, he considered the remarks of Mr. Welch as extremely uncalled for.

Mr. S. then proceeded to give a slight sketch of his military career, and stated that if any blame was to be attached to any one for the conduct of the battle around Newbern, he would much rather it should fall upon him than any of those dead heroes, for he was living and fully able to vindicate himself. He was proud that his good fortune had lead him to serve under so brave and gallant a man as General Branch, and if any one meant to reflect upon him, (Gen. Branch,) or any of his command, as brave men and gallant soldiers, they spoke falsely.

Mr. Welch said he was a North Carolinian and was proud of the record of North Carolina soldiers during the late war. No man held the memory of Gen. Branch and the gallant men of his Brigade, in greater affection and reverence than he. His language, on yesterday, could not, possibly, be construed into reflecting, in any way, upon those noble and brave men. What he said had been couched in plain English, and the gentleman, and the public generally, could draw their own inferences. The language he used was meant, solely, for the gentleman who saw fit to be jocular at his expense in such a broad manner. If any other construction was put upon his language it would be a most false interpretation.

A message was received from the Senate refusing to concur in the House resolution authorizing the Treasurer to pay members out of the money deposited by Sheriffs, &c.

By — Reynolds, (colored): A bill in relation to special procedure in cases of mills. Referred.

On motion, the rules were suspended and House bill No. 37, (tax bill) was taken up.

After various amendments, the bill passed its third reading, and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Painter, the House then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Jan. 23, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at ten o'clock.

Mr. Lindsay arose to a question of privilege. He desired to make a statement to the Senate in relation to a matter which he thought demanded investigation. He had called on the Clerk for stationery, and was informed by him that he had none. He, the Clerk, had transmitted an order to the Secretary of State for stationery, and he (the Secretary) only filled one-half the requisition, and filed the order for the whole amount. Why is this, sir? Are we not entitled to necessary stationery, and is not that the proper mode to procure it? He did not intend any unjust reflection on the Secretary of State by making this statement; he only desired the matter to be conducted properly, and if there is any wrong done it should be righted.

Mr. Barrow moved that a Committee of three be appointed to investigate the matter.

Mr. Hayes desired to bring to the attention of the Senate, an advertisement of one John Armstrong, Bookbinder which appears in the Journals of the General Assembly, at the expense of the State.

Mr. Sweet said he was glad this matter had been brought to the attention of the Senate, and hoped the Committee would be appointed. It was due the Secretary of State that the investigation should be had, he believed that the Secretary had the interests of the State at heart, and was glad we, had an officer who would take the responsibility on himself of withholding requisitions when, in his judgment the articles applied for are disposed of improperly.—When this investigation is had this Senate will be surprised at the enormous amount of Stationery consumed by this General Assembly; it will amount to enough to sustain the University of the State for years.

Mr. Davis said he hoped the proposition would be voted down. It seemed to him this Senate has a mania for raising investigation or smelling Committees. He would not be surprised at any time if there were a proposition made to appoint a Committee to ascertain if the members paid their Hotel bills. He was tired of such propositions and thought there should be an end to them.

Mr. Barrow said he made the motion because he thought it a matter that should be looked into. It was a chronic complaint. There are rumors on the streets that the members of the General Assembly are charged as high as $100 each for stationery. He had not used one dollar's worth, and he did not believe that one-half the amount charged had been consumed by any member of the General Assembly. He hoped the motion would prevail.

Mr. Love said he did not agree with the Senator from Montgomery, that matters of this character should be treated lightly. It is a matter of serious character and should be investigated at once, in justice to the Secretary of State and of the Doorkeepers. It is true that there is considerable difference in the stations which they fill, yet the honor of one is as precious to him as that of the other; the motion should prevail.

A. H. Galloway, colored, thought that after the remarks of the Senator from Craven, it would be simple justice to the Door keepers that this investigation should be had. The idea is conveyed that they have disposed of stationery in an improper manner. He had been informed by the Secretary of State that the Senate had consumed more stationery than the House of Representatives. He did not believe the statement was true. So far as he was concerned, he had bought his own stationery at the bookstores in this city, and could show his receipts, therefor, the charge of consuming stationery belonging to the State could not be laid at his door.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, called the previous question which was sustained and the motion was adopted.

The President designated the Committee, viz: Messrs. Lindsay, Beall and Barrow.

[NOTE.—We shall refer to this report as soon as we can obtain a printed copy.—ED.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Jan. 23, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. S. S. Ashley.

Messrs. Ingram and Ashworth changed their votes upon Mr. Bowman's amendment, exempting provisions from taxation, from the negative to the affirmative. They had not exactly comprehended the question when it was put to a vote last evening.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, moved to suspend the rules, and take up his resolution in regard to accepting Mr. Downing's proposition to buy the site and land of the Penitentiary.

He asked for the adoption of his resolution, in order that the Legislature might get rid of further trouble in regard to that affair. He thought that all the noise raised over that matter was solely to make political capital, &c.

J. S. Leary, colored, said the attempt to pass this resolution under a suspension of the rules, was a dodge to smooth over this matter. He wished the House to pass upon the Senate bill in regard to repealing the act purchasing the site and land of the Penitentiary. He did not regard the purchase as legal, therefore, did not see how they could sell what they did not own, &c.

Mr. Sinclair, favored the suspension of the rules.

Mr. Downing said, the passage of this bill would amount to nothing whatever as the Committee had made the purchases by law,—a law of the enactment of this very Legislature. If this bill passed, the matter would have to go into Court for a settlement; therefore an acceptance of his proposition would avoid all this trouble.

Mr. Ingram said he made no objection to a suspension of the rules; but he was not willing to accede to the principle that the State owned legally the property in question. He was willing to accept the gentleman's proposition so far as the nominal title of the State was concerned, in the aforesaid property, &c.

Mr. Pou, in a lengthy argument opposed the suspension of the rules. He hoped that the resolution would be voted down, and the Senate bill, repealing, the hasty, unwise and unconstitutional, action of this body last session, would be taken up, and adopted.

After considerable debate, the question recurred upon the motion to suspend the rules.

The motion being adopted, the resolution was taken up and made the special order for Monday evening next at 8 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the rules were suspended and Senate bill No. 31, (repealing the Penitentiary act,) was taken up.

Mr. Seymour moved to make it the special order for Monday evening at 8 o'clock

Mr. Ellis moved to amend by saying half past 7 o'clock. Lost.

Price, colored, moved to amend by making it the special order for Tuesday evening next, at 8 o'clock. Lost.

Mr. Seymour's motion was then put to a vote and carried.

Mr. Perebee presented a petition from the Commissioners of Camden County, in regard to the financial condition of the County, and asking permission to levy a special tax to meet their indebtedness.

Mr. Perebee then offered a resolution allowing the Commissioners of Camden County to levy a special tax on the real and personal property of the County in order to raise money for certain purposes.

On motion of Mr. Perebee the resolution was referred to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

Mr. Ashworth from the Committee on Military Affairs reported back the bill to organize the militia of North Carolina, with certain amendments. The bill was placed upon the Calendar.

Mr. Malone from the Special Committee to whom was referred the bill, making a change in the time of holding Courts in the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th, reported back a bill fixing the time of the Courts in the aforesaid Judicial Districts.

On motion of Mr. Bowman the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

By consent, Mr. Davis presented the report of the Commissioners of Carteret County. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill entitled an act amendatory of the act to incorporate the Western North Carolina R. R. Co., and acts amendatory thereof, was taken up.

Mr. French offered a substitute for the bill. The clerk read the substitute at length, and it was adopted. Upon the passage of the bill on its second reading the yeas and nays were called, and resulted in a vote of yeas 67, nays 22.

The bill, together with the following amendment off red by Mr. Malone, was ordered to be printed:

Provided further, That no bonds shall be issued from this date except in the completion of the grading of twenty-five miles of said road; at the expiration of which time, and it being certified to the Treasurer under the oath of the President of said road, it should be the duty of the Public Treasurer to issue $10,000 in bonds per mile under the restrictions of the act and other general laws in the management of Railroad Companies. And it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to subscribe the stock from time to time as required in this act, at the rate of $10,000 per mile in the completion of the grading of each twenty-five miles of said road.

On motion of Mr. Laflin, Senate bill No. 47, to amend an act entitled an act to amend the charter of the Western R. R. Co., ratified the 21st. of Aug. 1868, was taken up, and passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 60 nays 33.

On motion, the bill together with an amendment, offered by Mr. Barnett, was ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Laflin, the bill to amend the Charter of the Tarboro and Williamston R. R., was taken up.

Mr. Laflin offered a substitute for the bill.

Mr. Malone moved to amend the substitute by striking out "Cove Creek" on the Atlantic and N. C. R. R. wherever it occurs and insert Wilmington, and in section 3 line 22 after the word "million" strike out "of" and insert "five hundred thousand;" and in section 8 line 21 after the word "the," strike out "ten" and insert "fifteen hundred thousand dollars." In section 11 line 4 strike out "five" and insert "six," Provided, That the five hundred thousand additional appropriation by this act shall be expended from Wilmington to Cove Creek.

The amendment were adopted.

The bill then passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 61, nays 23 and was ordered to be printed as amended.

In regard to the case of Senator Robbins, a minority of the Committee consisting of Messrs. Estes, Sweet, Gatling and Bowman deemed it proper to say that they regarded the transaction between that Senator and Senator Stephens as an inadvertence on the part of Senator Robbins and in their opinion acquit him (Robbins) of any intentional wrong.

[While the vote on the above bill was being taken, Mr. Ferebee arose and said, for the last half an hour the proceedings of the House had been nothing more than a burlesque upon legislation. They should have adjourned sometime ago in respect to themselves!

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the House then adjourned until Monday morning, 10 o'clock.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before or anywhere so widely adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to every body, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an analysis of the other ingredients of the aromatic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label over the cork, the name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the endorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every source the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are as they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SKELLY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 88 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and was recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Shad have made their appearance in the Raleigh market.

The Editor of the Old North State has been shown, by Capt. Frank B. Cregee, of Williamsport, Tenn., one of the finest specimens of cotton the editor has ever seen. The crop in that section, the past season, was unusually good.

The kitchen attached to the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church, in Salisbury, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday last.

Some unknown person shot a valuable milch cow, on Sunday night last, in Salisbury, the property of the Hon. Burton Craige.

The Charlotte Times has been enlarged, and its appearance materially improved. We wish our friend unbounded success

The Presbyterian, Fayetteville, has also been enlarged and improved.

About 12 o'clock, on Saturday night last, says the Ashville News, the inmates of the Eagle Hotel were aroused by a negro girl, who discovered that a room in the third story, which was used for storing beds, bed-clothing, &c., was on fire. Fortunately, a tub of water was in the room of one of the boarders on that floor, which was quickly used and the flames arrested. A few moments delay would have laid the building in ashes.

The anniversary love-feast of the Young Men's Missionary Society, connected with the Moravian Church, was held in the Church, at Salem, on Saturday evening. The attendance was large, and the collection, at its close, proved that the members of that denomination are deeply interested in the spread of christianity among heathen nations.

Capt. Granger, of hotel notoriety, has taken charge of the Griswold House in Goldsboro'.—The Captain understands "keeping a hotel."

A case of wife-whipping, by a colored man, has just been brought before the criminal Court of Wilmington, over which Judge Cantwell presides. His Honor ruled that the practice of inflicting personal chastisement on a woman by a man under the pretext of "reasonable correction" or for punishment, was contrary to law, that the husband had no such right and the doctrine was exploded along with other kindred barbarisms.

Harry Clifton, Wm. Gatlin and Augustus Givens white, charged with robbing Larry O'Sullivan, on the streets of Newbern, about three months since, have been found guilty of highway robbery, in Judge Thomas' Court.

It is compained that the remains of dead horses are gathered and buried as soldiers in the national cemetery in East Tennessee by the government Agent employed to gather and bury the bodies of dead soldiers.

In a late trial in New York it was proved that some of the witnesses perjured themselves for fifteen dollars an oath.

The Petersburg Index advises its readers to cultivate the blackberry, as a matter of business. That paper says well; our people have realized thousands of dollars from the sale of this fruit.

It is positively stated that the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad will soon change its terminus from Portsmouth to Norfolk—running from Suffolk to the latter place over the Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad. This change, if made, will be due to that wise legislation of Portsmouth which makes the Seaboard road pay a tax of ten cents on each passenger carried through that city.

A few nights since, says the Richmond Examiner, some thief or thieves, evidently well acquainted with the premises, got possession of the key of the safe in which the sacred vessels of St. Peter's Cathedral were kept, and stole therefrom two chalices, the cups and patenas of silver, one of the chalices gilded; a silver ciborum, gilded; three large silver vases for holding consecrated oil, and other less valuable articles from the safe. The thief or thieves went into the kitchen connected with the Bishop's residence, ate up all the cooked food they found, and carried off from it a quantity of clothing that had been hung up to dry. The two keys of the vestry room, in which the safe was placed, were left, but the safe key was carried off.

The Boston Post says that the "Georgia negroes who were expelled from the Legislature, are still hanging around Atlanta." All owing to Kuklux Klan—the hanging, we suppose.

The theory that dogs are affected with hydrophobia only in hot weather, is pretty well destroyed by the fact that one thoroughly mad made his appearance on one of the streets of Cincinnati on Thursday last. He bit about twenty persons and some twelve or fifteen dogs before he was killed.

A mouse's nest, lined with fourteen dollars of greenbacks and fractionals, was found at a store in Green Bay, Wis., whereupon a local paper observes: "This is another strong argument for the resumption of specie payments as even the lowest animals are growing wasteful and extravagant under an inflation of paper currency."

A private soldier of the U. S. army, named Francis Gasson, at present stationed at Marion, Va., has lately fallen heir to $18 000 in gold.

"No d—d niggers admitted," say the Radical managers of the Inauguration Ball.

It is proposed in the N. Y. Ledger, that Clergymen be paid for attending funerals.

The average number of passengers on each train in England is said to be only seventy-three.

Ten thousand acres of timber are annually required to supply the British railways with sleepers.

The telegraph is a failure in Mexico. The people steal the wires as fast as they are put up.

The trade of Memphis, Tenn., has increased twenty millions during the past year.

MR. J. W. PRICE, travelling Agent for Hopkins & Co., Gas Generator, has presented us with a beautiful specimen Lamp of this new light, which, we are disposed to believe, is to take a prominent place among the great lights of modern invention. The Lamp generates its own gas, and by applying a blaze to the jet holes, it ignites as readily as the regular gas of our City Works. From the experiments made with the oil in our presence, we are willing to believe that the usual dangers attending the burning fluids, need not be apprehended from this Lamp. The light is mild, and yet sufficiently brilliant for all purposes—and the cleanliness of the whole establishment certainly adds to its worth.

Mr. Price is stopping at the Planters' Hotel, and will take pleasure in communicating all the particulars connected with this wonderful contrivance.

THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD AND ITS MANAGEMENT.

The Raleigh Standard of the 16th inst., contains a communication written by somebody, and published over the signature of "W. A. Smith, President N. C. R. R. Co." The writer attempts a reply to our editorial by an attack upon Colonel Fremont, the able and energetic Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. From our knowledge of that gentleman, he will take no notice of the scribbler. He is too much engrossed with his duties to waste time in such matters. Colonel Fremont is a hard working, practical railroad official, and is not dependent upon newspaper controversies to recommend himself to the officers and stockholders of the road.

We will, however, notice such parts of this silly article as deserves it. What small portion of the communication that is not personal, is taken up by a feeble attempt to prove that the North Carolina Railroad has been greatly benefitted by the contract made with roads North and South of it, which we published in full in a former article, and succeeds only so far to show very clearly that the contract hampers and cripples the management of that Company most seriously. By it the North Carolina Railroad is "compelled to charge the same rates" between Goldsboro and Raleigh per mile, as it charges for one hundred and seventy five miles between Raleigh and Charlotte, by which a clear profit of "from seventy to ninety thousand dollars per annum would be realized, if the business was all done via Goldsboro instead of stopping at Raleigh. We quote the writer:—"To carry out the contract, we are compelled to charge the same to other roads as we get per mile from the Raleigh and Gaston Road. For example, if we get sixty five cents to carry the freight one hundred and seventy five miles, the distance from Charlotte to Raleigh, what should we get to carry it forty-eight miles? We must, according to contract, add on eighteen cents, which is no discrimination against the W. & W. Railroad."

If the individual who wrote this communication had been specially employed by President Smith to prove that the contract hampered the management of the North Carolina Railroad and prevent it from taking advantage of its central position, and making the most of its advantages, he could hardly have chosen more expressive language.

The writer says that the North Carolina Railroad Company, in direct and palpable violation of the contract, honestly and truly gets sixty-five cents per one hundred pounds on first class goods for hauling one hundred and seventy-five miles, while the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad only receives twenty cents for one hundred miles. Astute Smith!

Even if this be true, if the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad is only to receive twenty cents per hundred pounds, and the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad has proposed, through President Badgers, to divide this twenty cents equally with the North Carolina Railroad, giving that road ten cents per one hundred pounds for running cars already loaded to Goldsboro, at a profit of nine and one-half cents according to Superintendent Anderson's calculations, it is clear that a net income greater by fourteen dollars per car load would accrue to the North Carolina Railroad by going to Goldsboro than by stopping at Raleigh. This profit the Company is denied by the terms of the contract. Verdant Smith! Astute Hawkins!!

Thus we see that the North Carolina Railroad Company has, by the action of its own officials, tied its own hands. The other contracting roads bind themselves to nothing they were not performing before the contract was made. President Johnson, of the Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad, as a matter of common sense, charged the same for freight going from Columbia to Charlotte as from Charlotte to Columbia. The contract binds him to do no more or less. And the writer says "the Raleigh & Gaston Road has to pay the same bonus that it paid before." What, then, has been gained by the contract to the North Carolina Railroad? What it has lost can be estimated in dollars and cents, as we have shown. It might have been as well for this writer to have let the people of North Carolina, and the Stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad in particular, know that but for the persistent negotiations of President Bridgers and Superintendent Fremont, the bonus paid by the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, which he parades before the public with such manifest satisfaction, and assumes it to be the result of President Smith's superior sagacity and management, would never have been received by the North Carolina Railroad Company, nor the forty seven thousand dollars of nett increase in last year's receipts by running the freight trains to Goldsboro' have been made. The competition created by these efficient officers, which made these increased receips last year, and compels the payment of the large bonus the present year, has been destroyed by President Smith's stupidity and malignity.

The writer, in a few lines, tickles President's Smith's egotistical ignorance, presents President Hawkins in a new role, and gratifies his own love of the ridiculous. He says: "Now, this twenty cents, recollect, does not come out of the shipper, but out of the earnings of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company. If that was a State Road I would object to gouging so deep; but it belongs to individuals, and I therefore, for the benefit of the North Carolina Railroad Company and the State, take all I can get from them."

THE FUTURE OF THE SOUTH.—Lippincott's Magazine for the month of February contains among many articles of intrinsic merit, one upon "Southern Reconstruction," written by a most polished and forcible writer. We have room for but a single extract in our present issue: "The future of the South." The writer says:

"We believe that the South has a great future before it in the development of its vast resources of mineral wealth, aided by its favorable location in regard to soil and climate; but we feel that its growth depends more upon the earnestness with which it seeks the fostering hand of our great national government than upon any application that can now be made of abstract theories of State Rights and local self government. We believe that its true reconstruction in all material respects is to be sought in a closer alliance with Northern energy and Northern capital, and that all natural union will be formed between the two in all the great enterprises that tend to the development of national wealth and commercial greatness, despite political antipathies and legislative ampitudes. But last of all, we believe that her richest treasure, her creative powers of mind and imagination, will yet be employed, in union with the more advanced intellect of the North, in the common work of thinking and writing for the benefit of our own country and of mankind. Political parties may hesitate to align themselves upon the basis of a common destiny; capital may shrink from free and liberal investment in new and needy fields; churches may not be willing to give the right hand of fellowship across the bloody lines traced by civil war; but literary men, the students of universal nature and the explorers of the illimitable fields of thought, will meet on their distant voyages, and feel a grateful pride in hailing each other as the citizens of a common country, and the devotees of true science will reunite the several filaments that weave the web of our national life. How glorious may become that state of American society, in which the energy and zeal of higher latitudes shall be joined with the grace and ease of Southern sentiment, where truth and power shall be subordinate to love, and where all alike shall rejoice in the oblivion of a great national sorrow, we may not now be able fully to appreciate."

REMARKS OF MR. MALONE,

On the bill to separate the Eastern and Western Divisions of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad.

The Legislature in 1854-55 gave a charter to the Road, called, at that time, the Wilmington and Charlotte Railroad, the terminii being Wilmington and Charlotte. At the same session the capital stock was increased from $500.000 to $1,000.000, in order to extend the Road to a point at or near Rutherfordton. And, by an act passed the same session, the name of this corporation was changed to the name of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, by which name it has continued until the present time.

In the Legislature of 1856-57 the charter of this Road was so amended as to make two divisions of said Road, but the control retained by the same Company—no attempt being made to organize two Boards of Directors, or anything of the kind.

I wish especially, call the attention of the House to a few of the leading principles, upon which this Company was governed, by virtue of the provisions of the charter, and the amendments thereto. In the first place, books were required to be opened, and at least one-third of the stock to be taken by individual subscription.—Then, in the second place, the Road was divided into sections of twenty five miles each, to be completed before the State came to the assistance of the Company. The original act simply authorized the State, on the completion of each section of twenty-five miles, to endorse the bonds of the Company for $200,000, which was eight thousand dollars per mile.

The Legislature of 1856-57 also provided for the exchange of bonds with the Company, instead of endorsing the bonds of the Company, believing that the bonds of the State would sell for a better price than the endorsed bonds of the Company. And by this same act it is provided that the State shall take a mortgage on the Road as indemnity for the State, and, also, providing (I believe) for the State to take possession of the Road whenever the Company failed to pay the interest on its bonds, as required by the act. And by subsequent Legislation, I believe, the capital stock was increased to three millions of dollars.

Again, by the act of 10th December, 1866, the right to the exchange of bonds was relinquished by the Company, and it was allowed to borrow money, by the negotiation of their bonds to the amount of $400,000, at which time the Company was required to pay the interest due the State.

And by the act of 1866, in section 4, the following provision appears:

Be it further enacted, That the said Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company shall have power to extend its Road by such route as may be deemed best to such point on the Tennessee line as the President and Directors may determine, and to that end shall have all the powers of condemnation of land for right of way and other purposes as are conferred by the charter of said Company."

And I believe by another act, probably of a late date, the Company has the right to cross the Western North Carolina Railroad at any point between the Newton Branch Railroad and Morganton. Under this legislation, the Company has continued its existence until the present time.

But I should not omit to mention the fact that, by an ordinance of the Convention, ratified 5th day of Feb., 1868, the Governor or President of the Convention was authorized to endorse the bonds of this Company to the amount of $1,000 000.

As to the amount of work done on this Road—the exact progress—the condition of its finances—the quantity of money used—the number of bonds endorsed or exchanged—the amount of interest due the State, and the liabilities of the State for this Company we know but little from any thing that appears here. I think it a source of regret that the Companies thus chartered by the State having such vast powers and privileges, should not heretofore have been required to make reports under oath to each session of the Legislature of all these facts. How can this House determine the amount necessary to insure the completion of this Road without knowing the amount on hand—the amount already expended—how, and for what purpose—the amount of work done—the exact termini of the same?

But from the other branch of this General Assembly comes a bill which I hold in my hand entitled a bill "To divide and separate the Eastern and Western Division of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad."

Mr. Speaker it is not the division of the Road which alone, prompts me to oppose this bill in its present shape, but it is the extraordinary provisions of the same. Why it is necessary to have two separate Roads—with two separate Boards of Directors and two Presidents, I cannot see. Could not one Company concentrate its resources and efforts, with more efficiency than two Companies, operating perhaps in antagonism to each other? And I submit that the danger of discrimination is not sufficent to authorize this large additional expense. Would it not be better for those affected thereby to even submit to a trifling discrimination in favor of the whole line, rather than submit to the burdens and troubles, incident to this attempt to disturb and change the vested rights, of the corporators of this Company."

I call the attention of the House to sections 1 and 10 from which it will appear that a separate and new Road is created, having a new name—going in a different direction—repealing many of the restrictions on the old Company. And by the 10th section all the rolling stock of every description, and all other property, including books and papers of the Western Division of said Road are required to be handed over to the new Road created by this act called the "Chimney Rock and Broad River Railroad Company."

Now can this be done under the laws and Constitution of the State—and the Constitution of the United States—which declares that "No State can pass any law impairing the obligation of a contract."

Judge Kent, in his commentary, vol. 1, 413, (first edition): "A grant amounts to an extinguishment of the right of the grantor, and implies a contract not to resume that right. A grant from the State is as much protected by the operation of the provision of the Constitution, as a grant from one individual to another, and the State is as much inhibited from impairing its own contract to which it is a party as it is from impairing the obligation of a contract between individuals." This principle was fully and elaborately shown in the very celebrated case of Dortmouth College, Woodword, 9 Cranch 42.

It was there held that the charter granted by the British Crown to the Trustees of Dortmouth College, in 1769, was a contract within the meaning of the Constitution and protected by it, and that the College was a private charitable institution and not liable to the control of the Legislature. The founder of this College required the same to be controlled by Trustees as expressed in the charter. The Legislature of New Hampshire passed a law transferring the control of this College to the Executive of the State. The Supreme Court of the United States decided that the law was invalid—that the rights of the corporators could not be disturbed—although the charter had been granted prior to the Revolution. The opinion was delivered by Judge Story, whose legal ability has never been surpassed by any American Lawyer.

Now is not this case precisely in point. Can the Stockholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad be required to assist in building the Chimney Rock & Broad River Railroad? Can they have all their rights thus changed and affected by this Legislature? Surely not. If so, private rights would be without protection—no man would be willing to invest his capital in a great enterprise in which he was to have his rights impaired and even destroyed.

But if all this be not so, this House surely will not sustain this Bill. Look at Section 5 of this act which requires the Public Treasurer, on the ratification of this act, to subscribe, on the part of the State, to the capital stock of said Road the sum of $2,000,000, &c.

In section 6 the Public Treasurer is required to deliver these bonds of $2,000,000 in one thousand dollar bonds each, upon the organization of said Chimney Rock & Broad River Railroad Company.

Yes, $2 000,000 to pass into the hands of this Company, before a shovel full of dirt is thrown from the road-bed—yes, even before the Road is let to contract—they are not required to begin the road at any particular time—or to finish it at all! The act does say in section 13, they may make connection with the Western North Carolina Railroad at some point west of the Blue Ridge, but at what point, nobody knows. This Company is not required to report to this Legislature anything of the condition of the Road—progress of the same—use of money, or anything of the kind. Suppose we place in the hands of all corporations of the State $12 000,000 to be at their mercy and control, without safe-guards and restriction—without any premature statute to punish for negligence, waste, or embezzlement. What would become of the State of North Carolina? Already fainting and dying for the want of sustenance, these alluring schemes of glorious Railroads, are to hover over us with the gentle vampire fanning while it sucks the life blood of the people. No, I would not vote for such a loan bill, if the proposed Road run immediately by my own door. The passage of such a bill is no evidence that the Road will be built. On the contrary, it is prima facie evidence that it never will be built. The chief point in the bill is, the handing over to this Company the vast sum proposed without sufficient guarantees of its faithful application. I speak not of this Company particularly; the same objection would apply to any other Company.

Look again at Sections 15 and 18. In Section 15, it provides that if the Company accepts this act, then the Governor is to endorse bonds to the amount of $1,500,000 as authorized by the ordinance of the Convention on the 13th. day of Feb. 1868. This is intended for the Eastern Division.

So the neat little sums of $3,500,000 is to go into the control of this Company.

But Section 18, expressly provides that whether the Company accepts this act or not, the Act from Section 1, to 18, inclusive is to stand any how.

So right or wrong—acceptance by the Company, or non acceptance by the Company, the Great Chimney Rock and Broad River Railroad is to go on towering in its independent career across the frowning Blue Ridge.

Oh! let us stop and think of this scheme. Let members of this body carefully ponder their acts in the premises.

I am for Railroads, but cannot sustain every scheme however ruinious, simply because it is called a Railroad. These acts should be well guarded. We should know that we get the Road—then the people can afford to pay the taxes incident thereto, but without these assurances, away with all Railroad schemes.

At a late women's suffrage Convention Rev. Dr. Gray made the opening prayer, in which he referred to woman as "formed from the rib of man." At those words, Mrs. Lucretia Mott threw her head bolt upright above the pew, and afterwards declared that she did so because she would not by the position of her head in prayer acknowledge that woman was dependent upon man for even his rib—no—she wouldn't admit any such inequality—she wouldn't.

Lucretia was elected Presidentress of the meeting—an honor obtained by this plucky assertion of the full equality of the sexes.

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Jan 23, P. M.

In a recent press dispatch from this city, it was stated, upon the authority of the Columbian Guide, that Circuit Judge Pelham had decided that the Alabama Legislature was not a legal body, and that Wm. H. Smith was not a legal Governor. The dispatch correctly represented the statement of the paper referred to, but the facts in the case are these:

"A vacancy in the office of Probate Judge of Shelly county, was reported to the Governor who was required by the Constitution to issue a commission to fill the vacancy. Afterwards a question arose as to whether there was really a vacancy. In determining this question Judge Pelham decided that if that vacancy had not occurred in the manner prescribed by law, the Governor's commission designating another man for the office, was null and void. The decision related in no way to the validity of either the Legislature or the Governor's office.

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by
